SUBJECT: Conversation with Walter Sheridan, Chief Investigator, Senate Human Resources Subcommittee on Health and Scientific Research

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

3. [REDACTED] Mr. Sheridan indicated that Chairman Edward M.
Kennedy (D., Mass.), Senate Human Resources Subcommittee on Health and Scientific Research, desires to have Admiral Stansfield Turner, DCI, testify before the Subcommittee on either 20 or 21 September 1977. I told Mr. Sheridan that Admiral Turner was out of the country at the moment and that we would have to consult him to confirm either of those dates.

[REDACTED]

5. [REDACTED] I asked Mr. Sheridan whether he considered our review of the 3 August 1977 testimony to be of higher priority than the material we were collecting for him. His comments were that the review of the testimony was a lower priority unless there were substantive changes to the material. He is more interested in our current effort to secure copies of checks, respond to Office of Security questions, and to complete all documentary review.
